WELCOME

The Dean says

Welcome to the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Christ in Canterbury. This is a truly global gathering as we welcome those from around the Diocese and the County of Kent, from England and the nations of the United Kingdom, and from around the world.

We meet in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, in whose service we are all united.

Hymn descant in final verse

Praise, my soul, the King of heaven, to his feet thy tribute bring;
ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
who like me his praise should sing?
Praise him, praise him,
praise him, praise him,
praise the everlasting King.

³Father-like, he tends and spares us;
well our feeble frame he knows;
in his hand he gently bears us,
rescues us from all our foes:
Praise him, praise him,
praise him, praise him,
widely as his mercy flows.

²Praise him for his grace and favour to our fathers in distress;
praise him still the same for ever,
slow to chide, and swift to bless:
Praise him, praise him,
praise him, praise him,
glorious in his faithfulness.

⁴Frail as summer's flower we flourish;
blows the wind and it is gone;
but, while mortals rise and perish,
God endures unchanging on:
Praise him, praise him,
praise him, praise him,
praise the high eternal One.

⁵Angels, help us to adore him;
ye behold him face to face;
sun and moon, bow down before him,
dwellers all in time and space:
Praise him, praise him,
praise him, praise him,
praise with us the God of grace.

WELCOME TO THE ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY

When the Archbishop arrives at the West Door she strikes it three times with her pastoral staff. The doors are opened and a fanfare is sounded

Children from John Wallis Academy, Ashford say

We greet you in the name of Christ. Who are you and why do you request entry?

The Archbishop says

I am Sarah, a servant of Jesus Christ, and I come as one seeking the grace of God, to travel with you in his service together.

The Children say

Why have you been sent to us?

The Archbishop says

I am sent as Archbishop to serve you, to proclaim the love of Christ and with you to worship and love him with heart and soul, mind and strength.

The Children say

How do you come among us and with what confidence?

The Archbishop says

I come knowing nothing except Jesus Christ and him crucified, and in weakness and fear and in much trembling.

The Children say

Let us then humble ourselves before God and together seek his mercy and strength.

PENITENTIAL RITE

The Archbishop says

God our Father, we have marred your image in us.

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

God the Son, born of Mary, we have not always obeyed your command to love one another.

Christ, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

God the Holy Spirit, you have given us creation to enjoy and respect, yet we have misused this gift.

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

May the God of love and power forgive us and free us from our sins, heal and strengthen us by his Spirit, and raise us to new life in Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Kyrie Eleison

The Choir sings Khudaya, rahem kar (Kyrie Eleison) Trad. Urdu liturgical text, arr. Christopher Ouvry-Johns

Khudaya, rahem kar.

Lord, have mercy.

Masiha, rahem kar.

Christ, have mercy.

Khudaya, rahem kar.

Lord, have mercy.

The Dean says

Archbishop Sarah, we have looked forward to your coming with great joy. In the name of the Lord we welcome you into your Cathedral Church.

In the name of the Lord we welcome you.

The Archbishop says

With all my heart I thank you for your welcome. May the peace of God our Father be upon this house and upon this company.

Amen.

Hymn

Thy hand, O God, has guided thy flock, from age to age;
the wondrous tale is written,
full clear, on every page;
thy people owned thy goodness,
and we their deeds record;
and both of this bear witness:
one Church, one faith, one Lord.

²Thy heralds brought glad tidings to greatest, as to least;
they bade all rise, and hasten
to share the great King's feast;
and this was all their teaching,
in every deed and word,
to all alike proclaiming
one Church, one faith, one Lord.

³Through many a day of darkness,
through many a scene of strife,
the faithful few fought bravely,
to guard the nation's life.
Their Gospel of redemption,
sin pardoned, hope restored,
was all in this enfolded,
one Church, one faith, one Lord.

⁴Thy mercy will not fail us,
nor leave thy work undone;
with thy right hand to help us,
the victory shall be won;
and then, by all creation,
thy name shall be adored,
and this shall be their anthem,
one Church, one faith, one Lord.

The congregation sits as the Archbishop kneels before the Nave Altar

The Dean says

Let us join Sarah our Archbishop in prayer for God's blessing on her ministry in this Diocese, in the Province of Canterbury and throughout the world-wide Anglican Communion.

Let us pray with confidence, each in our own language, the prayer that Jesus taught us:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

On this Feast of the Annunciation, we pray that, with Mary, we may respond to God's invitation to receive the Good News of the incarnation of Jesus Christ.

The Collect for the Annunciation of Our Lord to the Blessed Virgin Mary

We beseech you, O Lord,
pour your grace into our hearts,
that as we have known the incarnation of your Son Jesus Christ
by the message of an angel, so by his cross and passion
we may be brought to the glory of his resurrection;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

THE DECLARATION OF ASSENT AND THE OATHS

Remain seated

The Archbishop stands before the Nave Altar and the Archbishop of York introduces the Declaration of Assent

Archbishop Sarah, I invite you to affirm the Declaration of Assent I now put to you. This Declaration, used at the beginning of every new ministry in our Church, is a reminder both to you and to all assembled of what the Church of England is, and the basis of its faith, life, worship and witness.

The Archbishop of York reads the Preface

The Church of England is part of the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church, worshipping the one true God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. It professes the faith uniquely revealed in the Holy Scriptures and set forth in the catholic creeds, which faith the Church is called upon to proclaim afresh in each generation. Led by the Holy Spirit, it has borne witness to Christian truth in its historic formularies, the Thirty-nine Articles of Religion, The Book of Common Prayer and the Ordering of Bishops, Priests and Deacons. In the declaration you are about to make, will you affirm your loyalty to this inheritance of faith as your inspiration and guidance under God in bringing the grace and truth of Christ to this generation and making Him known to those in your care?

The Archbishop of Canterbury responds

I, Sarah Elisabeth Mullally, do so affirm, and accordingly declare my belief in the faith which is revealed in the Holy Scriptures and set forth in the catholic creeds and to which the historic formularies of the Church of England bear witness; and in public prayer and administration of the sacraments, I will use only the forms of service which are authorized or allowed by Canon.

The Archbishop lays her hand on the Book of the Gospels and the Dean says

You, Most Reverend Archbishop, shall make your Corporal Oath on these Holy Gospels of God which you thus hold, that you will inviolably observe the ancient and approved customs of this Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Christ, Canterbury, and that to your best ability you will give help and assistance in defending the rights, statutes and liberties of this Church.

The Archbishop says

As I shall answer the same to Almighty God I hereby make this my Corporal Oath.

The Presidents of Churches Together in England present the Presidents' Covenant

Bishop Paulina Hławiczka-Trotman, Bishop of the Lutheran Church of Great Britain and President of Churches Together in England, says

Dear sister in Christ, our Lord Jesus solemnly prayed for the unity of his disciples in truth and love, and he has given us the Holy Spirit who renews our hearts as he equips and calls us to service and witness for the life of the world.

The Reverend Dr Tessa Henry-Robinson, Moderator of the Free Churches Group and President of Churches together in England, says

Will you add your signature to the Covenant we share as Presidents of Churches Together in England, and join your voice to ours in prayer and in the service of the Gospel in our nation?

The Archbishop responds

Willingly I share with you the service of the churches of this country, and pledge myself to strive for the full, visible unity of Christ's Church in truth and love.

The Archbishop adds her signature to those of her Co-Presidents on the Covenant Document, overseen by the General Secretary of Churches Together in England

Anthem

During the anthem the Archbishop greets her Co-Presidents of Churches Together in England

O Lord, give thy Holy Spirit in to our hearts and lighten our understanding, that we may dwell in the fear of thy Name all the days of our life,
that we may know thee, the only true God,
and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent.

Hymn

Stand

Come down, O Love divine, seek thou this soul of mine,
and visit it with thine
own ardour glowing;
O Comforter, draw near,
within my heart appear,
and kindle it,
thy holy flame bestowing.

²Let holy charity
mine outward vesture be,
and lowliness
become mine inner clothing;
true lowliness of heart,
which takes the humbler part,
and o'er its own shortcomings
weeps with loathing.

³And so the yearning strong,
with which the soul will long,
shall far outpass
the power of human telling;
for none can guess its grace,
till he become the place wherein the Holy Spirit
makes his dwelling.

Old Testament Reading

Isaiah 7:10-14 read by the Most Reverend Richard Moth, Archbishop of Westminster

A reading from the Prophecy of Isaiah

Again the Lord spoke to Ahaz, saying, Ask a sign of the Lord your God; let it be deep as Sheol or high as heaven. But Ahaz said, I will not ask, and I will not put the Lord to the test. Then Isaiah said: 'Hear then, O house of David! Is it too little for you to weary mortals, that you weary my God also? Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Look, the young woman is with child and shall bear a son, and shall name him Immanuel.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading

Luke 1:26-38

read from the Nave Lectern by the Right Reverend Alba Sally Sue Hernández García, Bishop of Mexico, Acting Primate of La Iglesia Anglicana de Mexico

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

A los seis meses, Dios mandó al ángel Gabriel a un pueblo de Galilea llamado Nazaret, donde vivía una joven llamada María; era virgen, pero estaba comprometida para casarse con un hombre llamado José, descendiente del rey David. El ángel entró en el lugar donde ella estaba, y le dijo:—¡Salve, llena de gracia! El Señor está contigo. María se sorprendió de estas palabras, y se preguntaba qué significaría aquel saludo. El ángel le dijo:—María, no tengas miedo, pues tú gozas del favor de Dios. Ahora vas a quedar encinta: tendrás un hijo, y le pondrás por nombre Jesús. Será un gran hombre, al que llamarán Hijo del Dios altísimo, y Dios el Señor lo hará Rey, como a su antepasado David, para que reine por siempre sobre el pueblo de Jacob. Su reinado no tendrá fin. María preguntó al ángel:—¿Cómo podrá suceder esto, si no vivo con ningún hombre? El ángel le contestó:—El Espíritu Santo vendrá sobre ti, y el poder del Dios altísimo se posará sobre ti. Por eso, el niño que va a nacer será llamado Santo e Hijo de Dios. También tu parienta Isabel va a tener un hijo, a pesar de que es anciana; la que decían que no podía tener hijos, está encinta desde hace seis meses. Para Dios no hay nada imposible. Entonces María dijo:—Yo soy esclava del Señor; que Dios haga conmigo como me has dicho. Con esto, el ángel se fue.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. And he came to her and said, 'Greetings, favoured one! The Lord is with you.' But she was much perplexed by his words and pondered what sort of greeting this might be. The angel said to her, 'Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favour with God. And now, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus. He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his ancestor David. He will reign over the house of Jacob for ever, and of his kingdom there will be no end.' Mary said to the angel, 'How can this be, since I am a virgin?' The angel said to her, 'The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be holy; he will be called Son of God. And now, your relative Elizabeth in her old age has also conceived a son; and this is the sixth month for her who was said to be barren. For nothing will be impossible with God.' Then Mary said, 'Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word.' Then the angel departed from her.

The Archbishop says

I solemnly commit myself before you to the service of the Church of England, the Anglican Communion and the whole Church of Christ throughout the world, that together we may proclaim the Gospel of Christ who reconciles us to God and breaks down the walls that divide us.

The Dean says

Let us greet our newly installed Archbishop.

The Archbishop is greeted with applause

Hymn

Following v. 3

There's a wideness in God's mercy
like the wideness of the sea;
there's a kindness in his justice
which is more than liberty.
There is no place where earth's sorrows
are more felt than up in heaven;
there is no place where earth's failings have such kindly judgement given.

²For the love of God is broader than the measure of our mind, and the heart of the Eternal is most wonderfully kind.
But we make his love too narrow
by false limits of our own;
and we magnify his strictness
with a zeal he would not own.

³If our love were but more simple,
we should take him at his word;
and our lives would be all gladness,
in the joy of Christ our Lord.

THE SERMON

Anthem All shall be well

Without love we may not live.
And in this love our life is everlasting.
Love was without beginning, is and shall be without ending.
All shall be well and all manner of thing shall be well.
Ah! Good Lord how might it all be well?
For wickedness hath been suffered to rise contrary to the Goodness.
I it am, the Might and the Goodness of the Fatherhood;
I it am, the Wisdom of the Motherhood;
I it am, the Light and the Grace that is all blessed Love.

Text: Julian of Norwich (c.1343-1417), from Revelations of Divine Love

Music: Joanna Marsh (b. 1970)

THE NICENE CREED

Stand

The Archbishop leads the people in saying the Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is,
seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father,
who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

THE PRAYERS

The Venerable Darren Miller, Archdeacon of Ashford

Let us pray

Almighty God, on this day you made our salvation known to Mary by the message of an angel. Grant Archbishop Sarah the comfort and strength of your Holy Spirit.

Lord, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

A pupil from Archbishop's School, Canterbury

Through your angel Gabriel you brought a message of peace and joy to Mary.

Give to the world the joy and peace of salvation. We pray for the nations of the world and for their leaders.

Lord, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

Mr C Pradeep Jacob, Member of the Vacancy in See Committee

You chose the Virgin Mary to be the mother of your Son. Have mercy on all who wait for your redemption. Strengthen the mission of the churches of the Anglican Communion and the whole Church of Jesus Christ.

Lord, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

Mrs Domenica Pecoraro, Refugee Programme Manager

You look with compassion on the lowly and fill the hungry with good things. Encourage the downhearted; help all those in need; and deliver those whose lives are blighted by poverty, war and injustice.

Lord, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

The Reverend Catherine Darkins, Chaplain of the Pilgrims' Hospice.

Grant, O Lord,
that by the riches of your grace
we may grow up into him who unites our life to yours,
even he who is the first-born of all creation,
your Son Jesus Christ, our Lord.
Amen.

ACT OF COMMITMENT

Stand

The Archbishop says

I invite you as Christians to commit to serve together

All Christians, of different denominations, are invited to say, together with the Archbishop

Taking the example of Jesus Christ and his disciples, we commit to follow Him in faith, to honour God's image in all people and to cherish this earth as the gift of God.

The Archbishop says

I invite you as faith leaders to commit to serve together.

Representatives of all faith communities are invited to say, together with the Archbishop

We commit to serve together as people of many faiths, in a spirit of friendship and co-operation, to help bring about a better world now and for generations to come.

The Archbishop says

I invite you as public servants to commit to serve together

Public servants and leaders from state, community and wider society are invited to say, together with the Archbishop

We commit ourselves, as people in leadership and public service, to seek the welfare of all people.

Hymn

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of the Lord!
unnumbered blessings, give my spirit voice;
tender to me the promise of his word;
in God my Saviour shall my heart rejoice.

²Tell out, my soul, the greatness of his name!
make known his might, the deeds his arm has done;
his mercy sure, from age to age the same;
his holy name, the Lord, the mighty one.

³Tell out, my soul, the greatness of his might!
powers and dominions lay their glory by.
Proud hearts and stubborn wills are put to flight,
the hungry fed, the humble lifted high.

⁴Tell out, my soul, the glories of his word!
firm is his promise, and his mercy sure.
Tell out, my soul, the greatness of the Lord
to children's children and for evermore.

THE BLESSING

The Archbishop says

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Christ the Son of God, born of Mary, fill you with his grace to trust his promises and obey his will;
and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit,
be among you and remain with you always.

Amen.
